11. Course Objectives and Summary:

Employability 360° prepares students to move confidently from university to the professional world. The course takes a complete (360°) view of employability: it starts with self-discovery through passion, SWOT analysis and personality types, and builds the foundation skills that employers expect in the 21st century, such as note-taking, communication, teamwork, self-leadership and presentation. Students then turn this self-knowledge into a career plan and a personal brand, and prepare the professional documents needed to apply for jobs, including CVs/résumés, cover letters and LinkedIn/GitHub profiles. The course concludes with interview preparation, mock interviews and other career-related activities, so that every student leaves with a ready-to-use job application package and the confidence to present themselves anywhere in the world.

Objective:

The objectives of this course are

- To develop self-awareness by analyzing personal strengths, weaknesses, interests and personality traits, and to use them to build a realistic career plan and personal brand.
- To develop effective communication, teamwork, self-leadership, note-taking and presentation skills for academic, professional and collaborative environments.
- To prepare professional CVs/résumés, cover letters and LinkedIn/GitHub profiles that meet the expectations of employers and applicant tracking systems (ATS).
- To develop job interview skills and professional confidence through mock interviews and career-related activities.

PART-C: Assessment and Evaluation

15. Assessment Strategy

Quiz:
Altogether 4 quizzes may be taken during the semester, 2 quizzes will be taken for midterm and 2 quizzes will be taken for final term. Best of 3 quizzes will be considered and marks will be average. No makeup quizzes will be taken. Students are strongly recommended not to miss any quizzes.

Assignment:
The students will have to submit the assignments individually. Assignments will include a personal SWOT analysis and career plan, and a job application package (CV/résumé, cover letter and LinkedIn/GitHub profile) which they have to prepare at home and submit on or before the due date. No late submission of assignments will be accepted.

Presentation and Mock Interview:
Each student will deliver an individual presentation (personal brand/elevator pitch) and take part in a mock interview during the final weeks of the semester. Performance will be evaluated on content, delivery, body language and professional presentation.
